UDMGVK-01 Ultimate Diorama Masterline Godzilla vs Kong Godzilla Final Battle

A highly detailed LEGO Technic model of Godzilla. The monster is depicted in a dynamic pose, breathing a large plume of bright blue and white flames from its mouth. It stands on a dark, textured base representing a city street, with small yellow and orange flames at its feet. In the background, a cityscape is built with various Technic pieces, including a prominent building with a red sign and a ship-like structure with a propeller. The entire model is set against a dark, solid background.

This product contains a lot of small fragile parts, which may deteriorate or loose during shipping. Should you get notice that during assembly, no additional is needed to fix, please keep up the specific attention with a knowledge that the total weight of the product is 90 lbs. increasing from a 10 lbs. decrease.
